

Oral Book Report

Trimester Three

Name: _____

Due Date: Tuesday, May 31st.

Please be prepared with lots of information about your book. Below is a checklist of the information you must include during your oral book report. You may use note cards/paper to help you remember everything and stay on track. The information does not have to be shared in the exact order listed below.

Look out at the audience while you are giving your report as much as you can. You should not just read your report to the class (but you may certainly refer to your notes). Speak slowly and clearly. Make sure everyone can hear you. Practice. Practice. Practice!!!

Have your book with you when giving your report. (you need it for #6)

Be ready for questions from your classmates. You will be graded on the checklist below.
